WHAT DOES YOUR SCORE RANGE MEAN?

No single numerical score can exactly represent your reasoning skills. If you had taken different editions of the test within a short period of time, your performance would probably vary somewhat on the 200 to 800 scale.

HOW DO YOU COMPARE WITH COLLEGE-BOUND SENIORS?

Percentiles indicate what percentage of test takers earned a score lower than yours. The national percentile for your verbal score of 660 is 90, indicating you did better than 90% of the national group of college-bound seniors. The national percentile for your math score of 570 is 66, indicating you did better than 66% of the national group of college-bound seniors.

DID YOU DO BETTER IN VERBAL OR MATH?

Your scores indicate that you performed better on the verbal test than on the math test.

WHAT'S THE AVERAGE VERBAL OR MATH SCORE?

For college-bound seniors in the class of 2004, the average verbal score was 508 and the average math score was 518.

WILL YOUR SCORES CHANGE
IF YOU TAKE THE TEST AGAIN?

If you take the test again, especially if you study between now and then, your scores may go up.

Among students with verbal scores of 660, 50% score higher on a second testing, 41% score lower, and 9% receive the same score. On average, a person with a verbal score of 660 gains 6 point(s) on a second testing.

Among students with math scores of 570, 56% score higher on a second testing, 35% score lower, and 9% receive the same score. On average, a person with a math score of 570 gains 12 point(s) on a second testing.

HOW DID YOU DO ON EACH TYPE OF QUESTION?

Type of Question		Number Right	Number Wrong	Number Omitted	Number of Questions	Raw Score	Estimated Percentile College-bound Seniors
VERBAL	Critical Reading	33	7	0	40	31	85
	Analogies	16	3	0	19	15	85
	Sentence Completion	16	3	0	19	15	85
MATH	Arithmetic and Algebraic Reasoning	30	14	0	44	27	65
	Geometric Reasoning	11	5	0	16	10	65

Your responses to specific types of questions are presented as number right, number wrong, and number omitted. Raw scores are based on the specific edition of the test that you took. You cannot compare raw scores on different editions of the test or across different types of questions. For each type of question, you can compare your performance to college-bound seniors who took this test. This percentile is an estimate of the percentage of college-bound seniors who earned a raw score lower than yours on each type of question.
